1. In late May authorities of the Kwangsi Provincial Government and the Kwangsi Military District instructed the ten regional administrators' offices and the military sub-districts to establish political training classes for cadre members within the shortest time possible. Training classes will last one month and will be held until the end of September.
2. The training will be based on experience gained in "the mopping-up of bandits and the purge of local ruffians," and will be designed to correct the following shortcomings which are now widespread among the cadre members:
 - a. To intensify the conviction, which cadre members now lack, necessary to mobilize the masses.
 - b. To develop a clear understanding among cadre members concerning the division of population into social classes.
 - c. To emphasize the importance of the "anti-ruffian struggle" for the revolution.
 - d. To teach cadre members how to remedy defects in peasants' unions.
 - e. To strengthen the cadre members' reliance upon the assistance of poor peasants, the masses, and the Liberation Army.

The instructions clearly stated that the regional administrators would head the training and that instructors should be cadre members selected by the regional administrators' offices or the military sub-districts.

3. The Yulin (110-08, 22-38) and the Wachen (111-19, 23-28) Military Sub-Districts have already formed their training classes. The first session of the Yulin training class has over 300 trainees and is being held in the former Chung Cheng Middle School.
